

CASE STUDY NO.3

Hasina is 21 year's old girl belonging to poorest family of village Lakaro of Tehsil Karkh of Khuzdar. In the age of 20 she got marry, actually sold in the name of custom Lub/Valwar to almost above 50 years old tribal chief Mr. Haji Sulaiman who had already two wives and 06 children. As she was so young but belonged to from very poor family and also because of jealousy and fear, Haji's other two wives dislike her and used to make very awful attitude with her. Even they started blaming her with worthless and invalid statements. Haji just married with her but he did not provide her rights as wife and showed very apathetic attitude towards her and her family. When Hasina became the mother of a beautiful son, Haji's both wives took her son with them and compelled her to leave the house. On her resistance, she was asked by Haji Sulaiman to leave the house.

Now she is with her mother from last eight months. Haji Sulaiman even did not come to see her. She was crying and getting mad for her son but Haji and his family is giving no response to her.
